

ABOUT RUBY CRATE

Ruby Crate is an award-winning female led, quarterly subscription box specifically curated for teen and tween girls. Each Ruby Crate includes a clever mix of items – from beauty products to funky room décor to trendy gadgets. All the items are a surprise until the recipient opens the box! In addition to regular quarterly boxes, Ruby Crate offers Birthday Boxes to celebrate special birthday milestones and Campus Crates that are tailored for older girls living away from home for the first time. A new Mini Ruby Crate was just launched that is designed especially for younger girls aged 4-7!

WHAT'S IN A CRATE?

Each curated box includes seasonal items tailored slightly depending on the age of the recipient. Past crates have included slippers, water bottles, candy, sunscreen, sunglasses, makeup, tote bags, essential oils, jewelry, accessories, and wellness products. Each box has a series of postcards, a seasonal recipe, a welcome card with a list of items and a personalized note from owners, Heidi and Sienna.

THE RUBY CRATE STORY

Early in the pandemic, while browsing for a subscription box for her daughter, Heidi Avery noticed there were many boxes for women, but none tailored specifically to teen or tween girls. And so, in 2020, Ruby Crate was born! The company was named after Heidi's Grandmother Ruby who "was generous, kind and a friend to everyone she met." Running the company has been an incredibly valuable experience for Heidi, a busy mom of three who works on the business with her middle child, 14-year-old Sienna. They captured a niche market at a critical time with a product that continues to grow its customer base domestically and abroad.
